

Dr. B.C. Burchfiel,
B.Sc. and M.Sc. (Stanford), Ph.D. (Yale)
Former President of the Geological Society of America
Winner of the Penrose Medal (GSA 2009).
One of the major contributors in our understanding of continental tectonics and will chair a special session on the tectonics of China and Tibet (Afternoon of April 8th)

ATLAS Proudly presents:
Symposium 2011

A window in to the heavens: Orogenesis and the development of the world's most spectacular mountain ranges.

Featuring: Dr. B. Clark Burchfiel,
Schlumberger Professor of Geology, M.I.T.

April 7th - April 8th

Keynote speeches:

Noon, April 7th, Tory 3-36: The European orogenies

4:15pm, April 8th, CCIS 1-440: Tectonics of China

Symposium banquet

6:30 pm, April 8th, Faculty Club, University of Alberta

Tickets @ $35 on sale March 29th and 30th in ESB